The MLB season is right around the corner. BC alum Tyler Heineman who is competing for big league time is confident this will be the year he gets his shot at a roster spot with the Arizona Diamondbacks! Another BC alum Quinn Brodey has played in a handful of Major League games this spring and is ready to climb the ranks with New York Mets organization. Let's cheer on our boys in their quest for what we all dream about when we were kids with plastic bats! Follow them @theineman13 @quinnbrodey
